

The slow reconstruction process of the earthquake affected schools have put the education of many under water!

The children of Siddhartha H. S. in Saurpani, Gorkha are still waiting for enough decent structures to have undisturbed education.

Many such schools with high number of students are not enlisted by NGOs like JAICA and ADB for reconstruction due to fact that they lack enough land according to the criteria of the organization.

The Monsoon has washed away the approach roads to many villages, making it impossible to transport the construction materials.

The NJSI work in Gorkha is halted till the rain stops and the roads are once again made usable

There were three tractors including one of NJSI carrying construction materials fell off the cliff and we could get back some of the materials with the help of the villagers.

The bridge across Daraudi river is washed away by the flood, completely cutting off the Surpani VDC from the main road.
